

TWO CHARGED IN MURDER OF LOCAL WOMAN

Community shocked by violent death of Brenda Howard

Brenda Howard's residence on Ebenezer Road remained marked as a crime scene on Saturday morning while Kentucky State Police detectives continued their investigation into her murder. Howard, who was 63 years old, was found in her home on Friday night by her granddaughter.

Early Saturday morning, officers from local law enforcement and state police are shown outside the home of Wanda Hagan, Homer Bartley Road, where her daughter, Chasity, and John "Fatman" Smith were taken into custody and charged in relation to the crime.

Monroe Countians in the Ebenezer community were shocked Friday night, April 20, by a brutal murder that occurred at the residence of 63 year-old Brenda Howard.

Monroe County 9-1-1 dispatch received a call at 8:37 Friday night reporting that Howard's granddaughter had found her unresponsive, lying in a pool of blood. Responding Deputy Sheriff Larry Martin was first on the scene, and along with Monroe County Ambulance personnel confirmed that Howard was deceased, apparently the victim of what responders called a grisly and violent murder.

According to a Kentucky State Police report issued the following day, Sheriff Roger Barlow then called KSP Post 15 at 10:16 p.m. requesting assistance with a death investigation. Detectives Ricky Brooks and Russell Decker arrived shortly thereafter and assumed responsibility for the investigation into Howard's death. It was determined that she was beaten and stabbed and that her home had been burglarized.

Officers with the Sheriff's Office had already begun a neighborhood canvas before the KSP detectives arrived and learned from neighbors that a burgundy Saturn sedan with a cracked driver's-side windshield had been observed leaving the scene. Investigators quickly linked the vehicle to Chasity

Hagan, 34, of Homer Bartley Road, Summer Shade, and John "Fatman" Smith, 41, of Dubree Road, Tompkinsville.

Around 11 p.m., officials quietly issued a "be on the lookout" notification for a vehicle matching that description and a short time later, after gathering more information, issued an "all points bulletin" for the vehicle, as well as for Hagan and Smith, alerting officers to consider them armed and extremely dangerous.

As deputies were patrolling the county and Tompkinsville Police were patrolling inside the city limits in search of the pair, the vehicle was quickly located at the residence of Hagan's mother, Wanda Hagan, on Homer Bartley Road. Detectives Brooks and Decker, as well as Deputies Martin and Charles Smith, went to the residence and subsequently took Hagan to the Tompkinsville Police Department to interview her in reference to the matter. Unknown to any of the officers and with this information withheld by both of the Hagan women, Smith was apparently hiding in a rear bedroom of the home throughout the night.

At the request of KSP detectives, a Sheriff's Deputy was posted outside the Hagan residence to watch the vehicle they had looked for all night, as it was considered a key piece of evidence in the investigation.

Early Saturday morning, as a hard rain began to fall and before the sun was up, Smith ran from the residence through a rear door, according to the elder Hagan, and into a heavily wooded area behind the home.

An all out "manhunt" began for Smith, with officers searching the surrounding area in the rain before being given the order to abandon the search. They said this was because KSP had a K9 officer en route and the less human odor laid down in the area the better it would be for the search dog.

Officers with KSP and MCSO continued to patrol the area's roadways while they waited for the dog to arrive, assuring that Smith stayed in a small parcel of real estate and away from any of the other homes in the area. Once the dog was actually on scene, he led his handler directly to an abandoned cabin several hundred yards behind the Hagan home and only a short distance from where officers had been searching before the ground search was halted. Once found by the canine, Smith was taken into custody without incident.

Later in the day (Saturday, April 21), as KSP officers were searching the vehicle that led them to the pair, they located a methamphetamine lab in the trunk of the car. Tompkinsville Police Department lab technicians Jimmy Carter and Kevin Webb assisted by dismantling the lab as no KSP or MCSO technicians were available at the time. (Note: Smith is currently awaiting trial on a manufacturing methamphetamine charge, related to a situation where he and Timothy "Cowboy" Curtis allegedly were found with an active lab just outside the Tompkinsville City limits just a few weeks ago.)

Smith and Hagan were both officially charged with murder and burglary later Saturday afternoon, and lodged in the Monroe County Jail. They were arraigned Tuesday in Monroe District Court before Judge Kristi Castillo with bond reduction being denied on both. County Attorney Wes Stephens also requested that the charges on Hagan be amended to complicity to commit murder and complicity to commit burglary.

They were both represented by public defenders and a preliminary hearing date was set for next Tuesday, May 1, for both defendants.

Services for Brenda Faye (Hopkins) Howard are being held today (Thursday, April 26), at 2 p.m. at Yokley-Trible Funeral Home.

She was the daughter of the late Levie and Edna Glee (Gearlds) Hopkins and the mother of Melissa Wallace and Amanda Pickerell, both of Tompkinsville.

Details about her background, survivors and funeral arrangements will be published next week.

Tuesday morning, John "Fatman" Smith (left) and Chasity Hagan were arraigned in Judge Kristi Castillo's courtroom, pleading not guilty to charges related to Brenda Howard's murder.

"Take-back" event set April 28 for expired/unwanted drugs

Bring your unused, unwanted and expired prescription drugs to one of the local "Prescription Drug Take-Back" sites Saturday so they can be disposed of in a safe and legal manner.

Monroe County CARES (Citizens Advocating Responsible EnvironmentS) and local law enforcement are sponsoring this Prescription Medication Disposal Event this Saturday, April 28, at both Tompkinsville and Gamaliel, in cooperation with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA).

You can bring the expired or unwanted prescription drugs to Wal-Mart in Tompkinsville or Dollar General in Gamaliel (near the store entrances) between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Saturday. Law enforcement officers, assisted by the Monroe County CARES volunteers, will collect the drugs for destruction.

This a free, anonymous and "no-fuss" service. "It doesn't matter what it is or who you are — we just want everyone to rid their households of unused prescription drugs that pose a safety hazard and can contribute to prescription drug abuse," they said.

The medications will be

Approval of 2013 budget postponed by Monroe Fiscal Court

The Monroe County Fiscal Court was forced to postpone the first reading of the 2012/2013 County budget at last Thursday's regularly scheduled meeting, due to the inability of the state to pass a transportation budget. County Judge/executive Tommy Willett explained to members of the Court that he had been assured by state officials that a transportation budget will be passed in short order, however, Willett said, the Fiscal Court will probably be forced to convene a special called meeting to pass the budget as soon as the state budget is complete.

Willett told Court members that his office had been notified that the County has been approved for a CDBG grant in the amount of $652,646 for disaster recovery funds. The money must be used for bridge repairs stemming from flooding in recent years, and the bridges to be rebuilt will include the Akersville Bridge, Ebenezer Bridge and H. Branham Bridge, Willett said.

"I am very happy that our County has been awarded this grant," Willett said. "These repairs will allow for safer travel for buses, emergency vehicles and the general public."

Electronic recycling program offered this weekend

You can dispose of your old electronic equipment, free of charge, at an event scheduled here April 27-28.

A trailer will be set up in the parking area at Wal-Mart on Friday, April 27 (10 a.m. to 4 p.m.), and Saturday, April 28 (8 a.m. to 1 p.m.) to receive a wide variety of old electronics and other equipment for recycling (this does not include TVs).

There is no charge for this service.

This is part of the PRIDE Cleanup efforts of Monroe County and the City of Tompkinsville.

Items that will be accepted for recycling include the following:

— Computers (desktop and laptop), monitors (CRT and LCD), hard drives, modems, plug and play devices, printers, scanners, power backups, power transformers;

— Copiers, fax machines, commercial telephone equipment, miscellaneous electronic business equipment, wires, cables, circuit boards;

— Video game systems, DVD players, VCRs, miscellaneous home entertainment equipment (but not TVs), microwave ovens, small electronic household appliances; and — Office furniture, most industrial scrap and most commercial equipment.

If you have questions, contact Monroe County Judge/executive Tommy Willett (487-5505), Tompkinsville Mayor Jeff Proffitt (487-6776) or Mike Turner (487-6050).

LAW ENFORCEMENT REPORTS

Injury accidents reported

A two-vehicle accident on Friday afternoon, April 13, resulted in injury to a Gamaliel woman and her twin children.

According to Sheriff's Deputy Larry Martin, Andy H. Gentry, 27, Glasgow, was travelling east on Clementsville Road in a 1996 Dodge Ram pick-up when a 1998 Toyota Camry operated by Megan R. Wisdom, 21, 438 East Main Street, Gamaliel, topped a rise on the wrong side of the roadway and struck his vehicle.

Wisdom and her four-year old twins, Kallie and Kaleb Woods were treated at the scene by personnel from the Monroe County Ambulance Service before being transported by ambulance to the Monroe County Medical Center via ambulance for further treatment of their injuries.

A two-vehicle accident last Thursday night, April 19, resulted in injuries to a Gamaliel man and a Fountain Run woman.

According to Sheriff's Deputy Larry Martin, Carol G. Pruitt, 52, of 2167 Duncan Road, Fountain Run was travelling south on County House Road approaching the intersection with Head Road when Carlie W. Key, 74, of 2047 V. Comer Road, Gamaliel, drove through a stop sign and struck her vehicle.

Key was treated at the scene by personnel from the Monroe County Ambulance Service before being transported to the Monroe County Medical center for further treatment of his injuries. Pruitt was later taken to Monroe County Medical Center by private vehicle for treatment of injuries sustained in the accident.

Legislative Update

STATE REPRESENTATIVE BART ROWLAND

SPECIAL SESSION ONE AND DONE IN FRANKFORT

The 2012 Special Session came and went this past week, as both chambers were able to approve both a budget for Kentucky's transportation needs and legislation to combat so-called 'pill mills' in the Commonwealth.

House Bill 2 was essentially the agreed upon version of the transportation budget bill in the 2012 Regular Session, House Bill 266. The $4.5 billion budget will pay for road construction projects in various phases, from planning and design to those that are ready to be built. This bill was held up on the final day of the Regular Session because of a disagreement between the leader of the Senate and the Governor over approval of House Bill 267, which lays out the construction phase of Kentucky's highways in the coming two years.

There is controversy over the agreement on House Bill 267. The conference committee of House and Senate members never met to discuss HB 267, but instead a few select legislators met behind closed doors to decide on which projects received priority. It is a tactic that is unfair to the majority of legislators in both chambers, and to the people of Kentucky. We must be open and transparent regarding all legislative matters, not just during the conference committee meetings on the General Budget.

House Bill 1, which was the other bill under consideration in the Special Session, seeks to make several changes in the medical community to combat those who place profits above patients by handing out large prescriptions of controlled drugs like OxyContin, which much of it in turn ends up sold on the streets. House Bill 1 in the Special Session was the original version filed as House Bill 4 in the 2012 Regular Session. However the Senate filed a committee substitute that put in place many of the revisions agreed upon by the conference committee, and the Senate also changed the funding source from the multi-county coal severance funds to the mortgage settlement agreement up to $4 million that Kentucky will receive from the multi-state settlement.

While much has been made in the media about why we were called back in Special Session, it is critical that we now look forward instead of the issues that forced us back to work in Frankfort. It is my sincere hope that lessons have been learned among all sides, and that we can place personalities and partisanship aside for the betterment of Kentucky. Finger pointing and name calling is not the way we should do business; otherwise we will once again have failed leadership in the Kentucky State Capitol.

As always, I welcome your comments and concerns about any issues facing our Commonwealth. I can be reached through the toll-free message line in Frankfort at 1-800-372-7181. A taped message containing information on legislative committee meeting schedules is available by calling 1-800-633-9650, and information on the status of each bill is available by calling 1-866-840-2835. If you have Internet access, I can be reached at bart.rowland@lrc.ky.gov, or you may keep track of legislation through the Kentucky Legislature Home Page at www.lrc.ky.gov.

FISCAL COURT

Court members also approved a motion made by Magistrate Ricky Bartley to not allow the Federal Government to remove the anti-aircraft gun from the courthouse lawn without a court order. The action stems from a previous Fiscal Court meeting where an administrator from the Department of the Army announced to the Court that the war relic was here without approval from the Army.

Willett also told the Court that the state has formally approved naming the new section of Highway 163 in the northern part of the county Veteran's Memorial Highway.

In other business, Court members:

— Approved the second reading and adoption of a budget amendment in the general and road fund;

— Approved to reimburse County officials for expenses to attend a recent conference; and — Approved road salt bids, noting that the County still has a stockpile of salt due to the mild winter, with the bid awarded to Central Salt in the amount of $79 per ton. Other bidders included Cargill with a bid of $95 per ton and North American Salt with a bid of $79.10 per ton.

Prior to adjournment, Willett announced that the Monroe County Farmer's Market is slated to open May 5 this year, and noted that he is very excited at the potential for local growers to market their produce for County residents.

Our Opinion

By: Mark and Ronda Elam

As many of us put our children to bed this weekend, we hugged them a little tighter — and as we may have left an elderly parent or loved one, we probably hesitated to make sure they locked the door behind us.

Times like this weekend, while they cause us to wonder what has happened to our little community, also show what is so wonderful about our area — as people pull together to help.

Within minutes after it was confirmed that there had been indeed a murder on Ebenezer Road, both through social media and through the phone lines, the word had gone out to make sure everyone was locked up and safe throughout the county.

Personally, I expressed my hesitation to post information that might cause a panic, but eventually I felt that the need to make sure everyone was protected in the event that the suspects were still in the area, overrode my hesitations. If someone that read the posts knew of another who lived in the area, they called and spread the information and warning; our community came together.

Canvasses of the communities around the area were assisted by those who were calling into county dispatch to report suspicious vehicles or concerns; our community came together.

As the family of Mrs. Howard stood shell shocked with the horrible news, offers of assistance, acts of kindness and prayers were uplifted; our community came together.

It's often in the darkest times such as these, the overwhelming community spirit really shines through.

So we challenge you today — many have shaken their heads and asked what in the world is it going to take?

In our opinion, our COMMUNITY is what it's going to take.

It seems like yesterday that we wrote and published a very similar plea for our community to come together to fight — as now we challenge you to stand up and fight again. It's up to us all — and we can't do it without everyone's help. It's not someone else's job, it's ours.

Imagine if we had a law enforcement officer living in every house, working at every business, standing at every public place — well, we do. It's up to us ALL to be the eyes and ears that assist by just being observant. Watching out for your neighbor, watching out for suspicious vehicles, watching to see if someone is regularly at an abandoned home, watching for increased traffic in an area where there is no logical explanation — just watching.

And then calling the Monroe County Sheriff's Department and the police departments from the cities of Tompkinsville, Gamaliel and Fountain Run all welcome anonymous tips on activities such as these. If you don't feel comfortable identifying yourself, call from a public location, call from a public phone, call from wherever. Kentucky State Police also offers a toll-free tip line at 1-800-387-3847. So you call and don't feel anything happened? Call again — and again — and again.

You can't give up — our community is all we have.

collected in drug-disposal boxes, sealed, and turned over to the DEA to be destroyed.

Rates of prescription drug abuse in the United States are increasing at alarming rates, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs, CARES members said.

Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet. In addition, many families do not know how to properly dispose of unused medicines, often flushing them down the toilet or just throwing them away — both potential safety and health hazards.

The Prescription Medication Disposal Event will help reduce the threat that the diversion and abuse of these drugs pose to public health," the officials said.

Methamphetamine warning given by Monroe County Sheriff

If you have listened to, watched, or read the news, then you are well aware that the problem associated with Methamphetamine (Meth) is reaching epidemic proportions. This bulletin is not a lesson on the hazards associated with use of the drug, but rather the hazards it presents to the environment and to the health of the citizens of Monroe County. Please make sure you share this information with family and friends, as only a unified community will be able to win the war against Methamphetamine.

THE HAZARDS OF METHAMPHETAMINE LABS:

The process of Meth manufacture includes many very dangerous chemicals. Many of these chemicals can create fires, explosions, chemical burns, illness, and death if inhaled or ingested. It is estimated that 10-20% of all labs are discovered as a result of fire or explosions. Beyond the risks associated with the manufacturing process, many Meth "cooks" are Meth users. The effects of the drug often make its users paranoid and very violent. If you suspect that you have found a Meth lab, leave the area immediately and report the lab to the proper authorities.

RECOGNIZING A METHAMPHETAMINE LAB:

Due to changes in Meth manufacture, labs rarely look like a high school or college chemistry lab. Many labs are being set up in remote areas or in vehicles (cars, campers, vans, etc) and often look more like a collection of garbage. Many of the household items commonly found in these "labs" are canning jars, water jugs, Tupperware (plastic bowls/containers), coffee filters, hot plates/electric skillets, thermoses or coolers, propane tanks, discarded batteries or cold medication packaging, etc. Besides the containers and trash, labs often have a very strong chemical and ammonia type of smell. These labs are often set up on other people's land, such as farms, parks, and camping grounds. If you suspect that you have found a Meth lab, leave the area immediately and report the lab to the proper authorities!

HOW TO REPORT A LAB:

The most important factor when you suspect a Meth lab is to always protect the personal safety of yourself and your family. Do not investigate the lab or allow any of your family members near the lab. Make sure that your children understand the risks and teach them to avoid suspicious areas. The second most important factor is to always report the lab to the authorities. Your tip to authorities can always be made without giving personal or identifying information. Please report suspected Meth labs to the Sheriff - 270-487-6622.

Take the First Step to a Heart-Healthy Life.

Start! Walking. Start! Something.

Heart disease is the number one killer of men and women in America. But did you know that just 30 minutes a day of physical activity can improve your health and decrease your risk of heart disease? An easy way to work physical activity into your regular routine is to start walking. For every single hour of regular, vigorous exercise, you can add two hours to your life expectancy.

It's easy to Start! whether you're by yourself or with friends, family and co-workers. You'll all feel a difference and live longer, heart-healthier lives.

Volunteers needed to assist local group on Join Hands Day

A group of Tompkinsville volunteers is striving to make a difference in the community. They need additional help. The volunteer project will take place on Join Hands Day, Saturday, May 5, a national day of service sponsored by Modern Woodmen of America and other fraternal benefit societies.

Volunteers in Tompkinsville will clean out flowerbeds, plant flowers, and spruce up. The project will run from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Sulphur Lick Cemetery.

Join Hands Day is the only national day of service designed to bring youth and adults together to plan and implement volunteer service projects in their communities. As the generations work side by side, they learn more about each other, sparking a new level of understanding and respect.

"Modern Woodmen is proud of the thousands of volunteers nationwide who give back on Join Hands Day," says Steve Van Speybroeck, Modern Woodmen's fraternal director. "We're encouraging local community organizations to join hands with us in 2012."

Linda J. Page, project coordinator for the local initiative, agrees. "We want to make a difference in our community on May 5. By connecting with others, we can make an even greater impact."

For more information or to volunteer your time to help, contact Page at 487-9674, or visit www.modern-woodmen.org.

Schedule: Meal provided by Mt. Gilead at fellowship hall beginning at 12:00 with services beginning 1pm at Mt. Gilead Church of Christ, 1189 Mt.Gilead Rd., Tompkinsville, KY

Services will be conducted by Christian ladies of Mt. Gilead with keynote speaker:

Becky Honeycutt

Becky is married to Jack Honeycutt, who is the coordinator of the Andhra Pradesh, India mission work. She serves as the bookkeeper and secretary of the work. They have two married children and six grandchildren. Becky and Jack travel all over Tennessee and to several other states each year to promote the India work. Becky has made two trips to India and was privileged to speak in the first annual women's lectures there last year. She has also been on a mission trip to Jamaica where she taught women's classes and worked with the medical team. She speaks at various ladies' events--lectureships, retreats, ladies' days and thoroughly enjoys teaching children and teen classes. She has written a tract, "Salvation--How Can I Obtain It?"

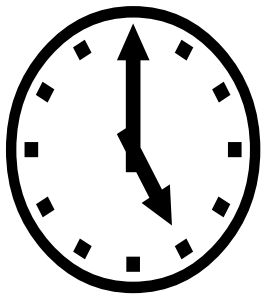

Theme: Who is a Christian Woman?

Delivered in 2 lessons:

We will study on Scriptures such as:
John 12:48; Romans 12:1-2;
1 Peter 1:15-16; Matthew 5:8

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

God has one Son without sin, but He has no sons without suffering.

Suffering oftentimes brings out talents which in prosperous circumstances would have lain dormant.

John Bunyan was incarcerated in Bedford Jail. There he wrote Pilgrim's Progress.

Victor Hugo was exiled. Then he wrote one of the world's greatest novels, Les Miserables. Robert Louis Stevenson was confined to his bed by sickness. Then he wrote Treasure Island and Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

Suffering will make you better or bitter. Submit yourself to God, and your suffering will make you better.

Cards of Thanks

Card of Thanks

It has been quite some time since I had my stroke and then broke my hip, so I want to take this time to thank the people from the Flippin Church of Christ, the Gamaliel Church of Christ, my neighbors, family and friends.

You have been so good to check on me from time I got home and are still making sure I'm okay. I appreciate all of the phone calls, cards, visits, food and prayers from everyone. Your kindness will never be forgotten. Thank you!

is looking for child sponsors.

Only $30 per year will sponsor a child for an entire year - to receive 12 books in the mail at their home. Over 10,000 books have been mailed out through this program to Monroe County children from birth to age 5 in order to introduce children to reading at an early age.

Without donations this would not be possible.

Also, if you would like to send a check to school you can send it to the Family Resource Youth Service Center and they will make sure it gets to Mrs. Walden. Contacts for those schools are as follows:

Glenna Gerald - JHC/GES
Jennifer Lankford - TES
Jean Blazier/Glenda Wilson - MCMS/MCHS

Please make all checks payable to Imagination Library.

If you would like to make a donation please send a check or money order to:

Monroe County Middle School to hold book fair

A "Buy One Get One Free" book fair will be held from Monday, May 7, through Thursday, May 10, in the middle school's library. This is a wonderful opportunity for students to gather reading materials for summer reading. A summer reading initiative will start Tuesday, May 1, in which students will log the number of minutes in which they read a book or magazine. Prizes can be won through the Scholastic Book Fair Company and the school.

Parents should encourage their children to read during the summer. More information is posted on the school's website, www.monroe.kyschools.us.

Mason Page receives prestigious Language Arts award

Mason Page, the son of Todd and Jaime Page and the grandson of Jesse and Willine Deckard and Jason and Kathy Page, all of Tompkinsville, has been recognized by the United States Achievement Academy as a student of excellence in Language Arts.

This is a prestigious honor very few students can hope to attain.

Mason, who attends Monroe County Middle School, was nominated for this honor by Dawn Cleary, a teacher at the school. Mason will appear in the United States Achievement Academy's Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy students should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Founder of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy recognizes students upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards for Selection set forth by the Academy. The Standards for Selection include academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a qualified sponsor.

FINAL DEADLINE NEARS FOR NEW MONROE COUNTY HISTORY BOOK

All Monroe County residents and people with ties to the county are invited to submit their family histories to be included in "The History of Monroe County, Kentucky, Volume II." Final deadline to submit material is April 30, 2012.

Family histories should be short biographies of up to 500 words and can also include a family photograph (optional). There is no cost for the family biography and photo (there is a charge for additional words/photos).

However, a family may submit additional biographies from different generations or branches of the family (for example, in addition to the biography of your own family, another biography and photo of your mother's family, and still another of your father's family, etc. may be submitted at no charge).

You do not have to buy a book for your information to be included.

Material submitted for the book should be mailed to The History of Monroe County, Kentucky, Volume II, 38 Old Mulkey Park Rd., Tompkinsville, KY 42167 or dropped off at the Old Mulkey Meetinghouse, at the above address.

Other photos of historical interest also may be submitted for use as space permits in the historical section of the book.

This commemorative book, sponsored by the Monroe County Historical & Genealogical Society, will include a general history of the county and its communities, businesses, organizations and churches and will also focus on people and families from this area. The new publication will be a hardbound, 8½x11-inch book, published in collaboration with Acclaim Press of Morley, Mo.

For more details, call Sheila Rush, the Society's book chairperson, at 270-487-8481; email sheila.rush@ky.gov; or write to the Old Mulkey address listed above.

This historic book will be available on a pre-sale basis only! Copies of the book may be ordered for $54.95 from the Monroe County Historical & Genealogical Society at the address above. Send check or money order to the above address by April 30 to reserve your copy of this limited edition printing (add $6 if book must be mailed). There is no guarantee that copies of the book will be available for purchase after the April 30th deadline.

AGENT'S NOTES: Proffitt Real Estate Agency is honored to have been given the opportunity to sell the lifetime collection of the Joe Fred and Betty Butler. It is very rare that one estate contains so much beautiful and unusual antique furniture, glassware, quilts, oil lamps, crocks, skillets and other items. This will be a 3 Saturday sale and contains something for everyone. It is almost impossible to list everything that will be sold due to the fact that a lot of the smaller items have been wrapped and put in boxes. This is an auction that you will not want to miss, so come out early each sale day and take a look at what we will be selling. Make your plans to be with us on Saturday, April 28, May 5, and May 12 for some fun time at our auctions. For more information contact the selling agent.

Any announcements made day of sale takes precedence over all other advertisements or comments. All information contained in our advertisements has been obtained from sources deemed to be reliable. Sellers and/or Proffitt Real Estate Agency cannot and do not guarantee its accuracy. All items are being sold "As Is". Owners and agents are not responsible in case of accidents.

AGENT'S NOTES: Proffitt Real Estate Agency is honored to have been given the opportunity to sell the lifetime collection of the Joe Fred and Betty Butler. It is very rare that one estate contains so much beautiful and unusual antique furniture, glassware, quilts, oil lamps, crocks, skillets and other items. This will be a 3 Saturday sale and contains something for everyone. It is almost impossible to list everything that will be sold due to the fact that a lot of the smaller items have been wrapped and put in boxes. This is an auction that you will not want to miss, so come out early each sale day and take a look at what we will be selling. Make your plans to be with us on Saturday, May 5, and May 12 for some fun time at our auctions. For more information contact the selling agent.

Any announcements made day of sale takes precedence over all other advertisements or comments. All information contained in our advertisements has been obtained from sources deemed to be reliable. Sellers and/or Proffitt Real Estate Agency cannot and do not guarantee its accuracy. All items are being sold "As Is". Owners and agents are not responsible in case of accidents.
